Creative City Public Charter School is a Title I school!

Thank you for your Budget Feedback!

I am grateful for everyone who attended our “Let’s Taco ‘Bout the Budget” gathering last Thursday night, and also for those who participated online as we live-streamed to the SVA Facebook page. We discussed priorities related to staffing and programming at school that are critical to our budget. Thank you for your feedback on many items, including what we heard about the importance of the following:

- small class sizes,
- consistent resource class opportunities for students (art, music, PE),
- a staffing structure that supports the needs of the whole child.

The opportunity to provide feedback isn’t over. At our next Board of Directors meeting, we will summarize all of the feedback we have received so far and review a draft budget. Board meetings are always open to all members of our school and you are invited. The meeting date has changed from our original calendar. It will be Monday, March 2 at 6:00pm.

If you have specific questions or ideas about the budgeting process, don’t hesitate to contact me at 443-642-3602 or MCanino@bcps.k12.md.us.

Sincerely,

Ms. Canino

Be on the look out around the building for signs of our celebration of Black History. Classes are participating in door decorating, oral and written projects, bulletin boards and in many other ways!
Ask your kids about what they are learning.

CCPCS Board of Directors

Are you interested in joining Creative City's Board of Directors? An interest form is available on Class Dojo or in person in the main office. Check it out, and consider whether this might be the right fit for you!

Even though the lottery deadline has passed, we are still accepting applications for 20-21.
SPACE AVAILABLE!

Does your child need a ride to school?
Can you give a student a ride?

We have a plan to set up a strong system to connect families who need help getting to school (driving, walking, MTA) with families who can help.
